

First Monday Seminars

Monday, May 12, 2008

12:00-1:00 pm

Anesthesia Conference room

(located on L1 of BWH)

The Department of Radiology invites you to attend the First Monday Seminar

12:00pm “Action-and Workflow -driven Augmented Reality for Computer Aided Medical Procedures”

Nassir Navab, Ph.D.

Professor and Director of the Institute for Computer Aided Medical Procedures and Augmented Reality (CAMP) at the Technical University of Munich, and faculty member of the TUM Medical School, Munich, Germany

12:30pm “Intergration of Robotics and Biomedical Measurements for Computer Aided Surgery”

Ichiro Sakuma, Ph.D.

Professor at the Biomedical Precision Engineering Laboratory, Department of Precisions Engineering, School of Engineering, at the University of Tokyo, Japan

Lunch will be served starting at 11:45 a.m.